

Chapter 9

What Your Sign's
ENERGY
Means to You

ENERGY

Dynamic energy is direct, rather than waiting for things to come to it. It faces the world boldly and defiantly. It is dominant, aggressive, extroverted, assertive, and confrontational.

AIR signs: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

FIRE signs: Aries, Leo, Sagittarius

..are Dynamic.

Strategic energy is indirect and understands what is needed to attract it. It faces the world timidly and yieldingly. It is introverted, reflective, reserved, nurturing, clinging, cringing, overemotional, mean-spirited, vindictive, fussy, intuitive, and non confrontational.

EARTH signs: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

WATER signs: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

...are Strategic.

EXAMPLE

YOU DILUTED <-----> YOU CONCENTRATED

if you are Aries sun or moon or rising then you are also Libra-concentrated sun or moon or rising if you are Taurus sun or moon or rising then you are also Scorpio-concentrated sun or moon or rising if you are Gemini sun or moon or rising then you are also Sagittarius-concentrated sun or moon or rising if you are Cancer sun or moon or rising then you are also Capricorn-concentrated sun or moon or rising if you are Leo sun or moon or rising then you are also Aquarius-concentrated sun or moon or rising if you are Virgo sun or moon or rising then you are also Pisces-concentrated sun or moon or rising

IN SHORT:

(water sign)<--Cancer sun is Capricorn concentrated-->(earth sign)
(earth sign)<--Taurus moon is Scorpio concentrated-->(water sign)
(earth sign)<--Virgo rising is Pisces concentrated-->(water sign)

(So, this person is: Cancer+Capricorn sun | Taurus+Scorpio moon | Virgo+Pisces rising)

This person is a total of 6 strategic energies which mean:

COMPLETELY STRATEGIC (see page 123 for results)

WHAT IS YOUR ENERGY?

(You should've already written down your sun, moon & rising sign on page 78)

Your sun sign is _____ the sign opposite it, is: _____

Your moon sign is _____ the sign it opposite it, is: _____

Your rising sign is _____ the sign opposite it, is: _____

(So, you are: _____ + _____ sun | _____ + _____ moon | _____ + _____ rising)

You are a total of _____ and _____ which mean:

Completely Strategic (6 out of 6)

This energy will have 3 water and 3 earth signs.

This passive, introverted, reserved, and non-confrontational individual is very indirect in their approach to and with many areas in their lives. Their natural self is to strategically determine and calculate any outcome.

They believe that if they wait long enough, their strategy will work in their favor.

They watch everything and absorbs its depth.

For that reason, she can be nurturing, clinging, cringing, overemotional, vindictive, fussy, as well as mean-spirited, because this energy knows not of any other way than strategy (to get their way).

If this energy were put in a position where there was a total need for strategy, she would succeed and handle the job-naturally.

Completely Dynamic (6 out of 6)

This energy will have 3 air and 3 fire signs.

This assertive, extroverted, dominant, and confrontational individual is very direct in their approach to and with many areas in their lives. Their natural self is to dynamically approach a situation so as to involve himself with getting an outcome/rise/arousal.

They believe that by taking things head on, their dynamism will work in their favor.

They are active and exuding-rather than absorptive.

For that reason, he can also be a rebellious troublemaker who is capable of being belligerent because he knows not of any other way than dynamism (to get their way).

If this energy were put in a position where there was a total need for dynamism, they would succeed and handle the job-naturally.

Mostly Strategic (4 or 5 out of 6)

This energy will have 4 or 5 water and/or earth signs and 1 or 2 air and/or fire signs.

This mostly passive, introverted, reserved, and non-confrontational energy can be indirect in their approach, as their way is to strategically determine the outcome rather than by way of dynamism.

A very small part of them is assertive, extroverted, dominant, and confrontational, but the large part of this energy believes that if they wait long enough, strategy will work in their favor. So their approach to a situation would solely depend on the situation itself (while they strategize).

Mostly Dynamic (4 or 5 out of 6)

This energy will have 4 or 5 air and/or fire signs and 1 or 2 water and/or earth signs.

This mostly assertive, extroverted, dominant, and confrontational energy can be very direct in their approach, as their “way” can be to dynamically approach situations-to get an outcome, result, or reaction (rather than by way of strategy).

A very small part of them is: passive, introverted, reserved and non-confrontational. And they are largely assertive, extroverted, dominant and confrontational. So by way of an indirect approach, they may strategize to determine the outcome, get results from or arouse a situation. But that mostly dynamic part of them believes that if they take a situation head on, their dynamism will work in their favor, and more often than the latter-they will take on that stance.

Balanced-Strategy and Dynamism (3 out of 3)

This energy will have 3 water and/or earth signs and 3 air and/or fire signs.

Half of this energy is passive, introverted, reserved, non-confrontational and partially indirect in their approach, as their natural way is to partially (strategically) determine an outcome.

The other half of this energy is assertive, extroverted, dominant, confrontational and partially direct in their approach, as their natural way partially (dynamically) approach a situation head on to gather an outcome or get results.

Because this energy is balanced in both strategy and dynamism, they can equally balance out when, where and for what reason strategy should be used-and when, where and for what reason dynamism should exude. Either way, they can mold themselves into whatever the situation calls for-naturally.
